ONCE IN A WHILE, IT'S IMPORTANT TO REMIND YOURSELF

Nestled in the beautiful rolling hills of central Maryland, this picturesque 18-hole, par 71 layout provides an unforgettable golfing experience. Designed by world-renowned architect Arthur Hills, Maryland National Golf Club takes full advantage of the dramatic terrain changes and wetlands surrounding the course. From long, rolling fairways to magnificent holes carved out of natural wooded lowlands and various water hazards, each hole of this 6811-yard layout provides a unique challenge to golfers of all skill levels.
